

In a special place beyond our time, a man and a woman from different worlds meet to fulfil their destinies.

»Sweetwater is the place where souls meet when they have not been able to fulfil their love in their lifetimes,« so the legend goes. Journalist Caleb Brooks travels to this small American town in order to investigate the strange events happening there. He falls in love with Carol Ryder who, just like his first wife, dies under tragic circumstances. Caleb is flung into an inner nightmare until he finally understands how he has been creating his own reality. He tries to make possible what is impossible – at the risk of losing his life ...
